Halloween night has come to Pug and Pig's house, and the darling duo is sporting matching costumes. The costumes are cozy. They glow in the dark. And they have masks! There's only one problem—Pug hates wearing his. So he decides to rip it up and stay home. But Halloween just isn't any fun for Pig without Pug! Can Pug find a way to be a good friend and get back into the Halloween spirit?

Pre-Reading Discussion Questions

Observe the illustration on the cover of the book:

- Identify the types of animals depicted in this illustration.
- Which animal is happy? How do you know?
- Which animal is not happy? Explain how this animal is feeling. How do you know?
- Explain why the animals are wearing matching costumes. What kind of costumes are they wearing?
- The title of this story is PUG & PIG TRICK-OR-TREAT. Determine the connection between the illustration and the term 'trick-or-treat'. During what holiday do children trick-or-treat? Explore personal trick-or-treating experiences. Is trick-or-treating fun? Explain your answer.
- If trick-or-treating on Halloween is a fun thing to do, explain why the dog in the illustration seems unhappy.
- Based on the information gathered from the illustration, predict what this story is going to be about.

Meet the author - Sue Lowell Gallion:

- Ms. Gallion uses words to tell stories. Her words create pictures in a reader's imagination. Discuss how the following words create pictures in the students' imagination. Predict the images children might see in their imaginations when they hear the words pumpkin, bones, costume, night-time, candy, and trick-or-treat?
- As a child, Ms. Gallion's favorite Halloween costume was Mary Poppins. She was not so happy the year she and her sister were ghosts with their heads popping out of sheets (their usual costumes), and their friends next door were dressed in matching Native American costumes that their mom had hand-beaded.
- To find out more about author Sue Lowell Gallion's childhood access her website at www.suegallion.com.

Meet the illustrator - Joyce Wan:

- As an illustrator, Ms. Wan uses colors and shapes to create pictures to tell stories. In PUG & PIG TRICK-OR-TREAT, Ms. Wan allowed Ms. Gallion's words guide her imagination to create the illustrations for the book. Discuss how the following images might tell a story about a special holiday — round pumpkins, dark night, masks, moonlight, black cats, skeltons, and shadows.
- Ms. Wan's favorite costume was a store-bought Strawberry Shortcake plastic costume which she wore for at least two years in a row. Her favorite memory was carving pumpkins and baking pumpkin seeds. Her least favorite thing about Halloween when she was young was that some of the costumes were quite scary!
- Ms. Wan's website is filled with samples of her artwork. Click on www.wanart.com to see what kinds of stories her artwork might inspire in you!

Post-Reading Discussion Questions

Pig likes her costume very much.

- Tell how Pig is feeling in this illustration. Identify the details in the picture that reveal Pig's emotion.
- List reasons why Pig likes her costume.
- Explain why Pig likes her mask.
- Do you think having a costume that matches her friend Pug's makes Pig happy? If so, why?

Pug did not like his costume until...

- Tell how Pug is feeling in this illustration. Identify the details in the picture that reveal Pug's emotion.
- List reasons why Pug does not like his costume. Contrast Pug's reasons for disliking the costume with Pig's reasons for liking hers. Tell how their points-of-view are the same and different.
- Do you think having a costume that matches his friend Pig's makes Pug happy? Explain your answer.

It is scattered all over the yard.

- Describe the action in the illustration on the right. Explain what Pug is doing. Determine how Pug's actions make Pig feel. How do you know?
- Examine Pug and Pig's different perspectives on Halloween. Consider how Pug's point-of-view affects Pig. Explain your answer.
- Tell how destroying his costume affects Pug's friendship with Pig.

Why who is this? Perhaps it is Pigs's shadow.

- Describe the action in the illustration on the left. How are Pug and Pig feeling in this illustration? Explain why, for the first time in the story, Pug and Pig are feeling the same way.
- Identify the reason why Pug decided to roll in the mud. What caused him to do such a thing?
- Determine why Pug cared if his friend Pig was unhappy about not celebrating Halloween.
- In the beginning of the story, Pug and Pig wore matching costumes. Tell how, in the end, their costumes go together in a different way.

Letter Counting

In this activity, students will explore a deeper understanding of the organization and basic features of the printed word.

Materials:

- Word Bank cards (Guide, pgs. 5-6)
- Numeric Cards (Guide, pg. 9)
- Letter Counting Answer Sheet (Guide, pg. 10)
- Cardstock
- Scissors
- Paper
- Pencil

Procedure:

- Print Numeric Cards on cardstock.
- Use scissors to trim around Numeric Card borders.
- Place Numeric Card sequentially in a horizontal row.
- Count the letters of the words printed on the Word Bank cards. Place each card beneath the Numeric Card that matches the number of letters in each word.
- Use the Letter Counting Answer Sheet to check work.
- Use paper and pencil to copy word lists.

Skeleton Labeling

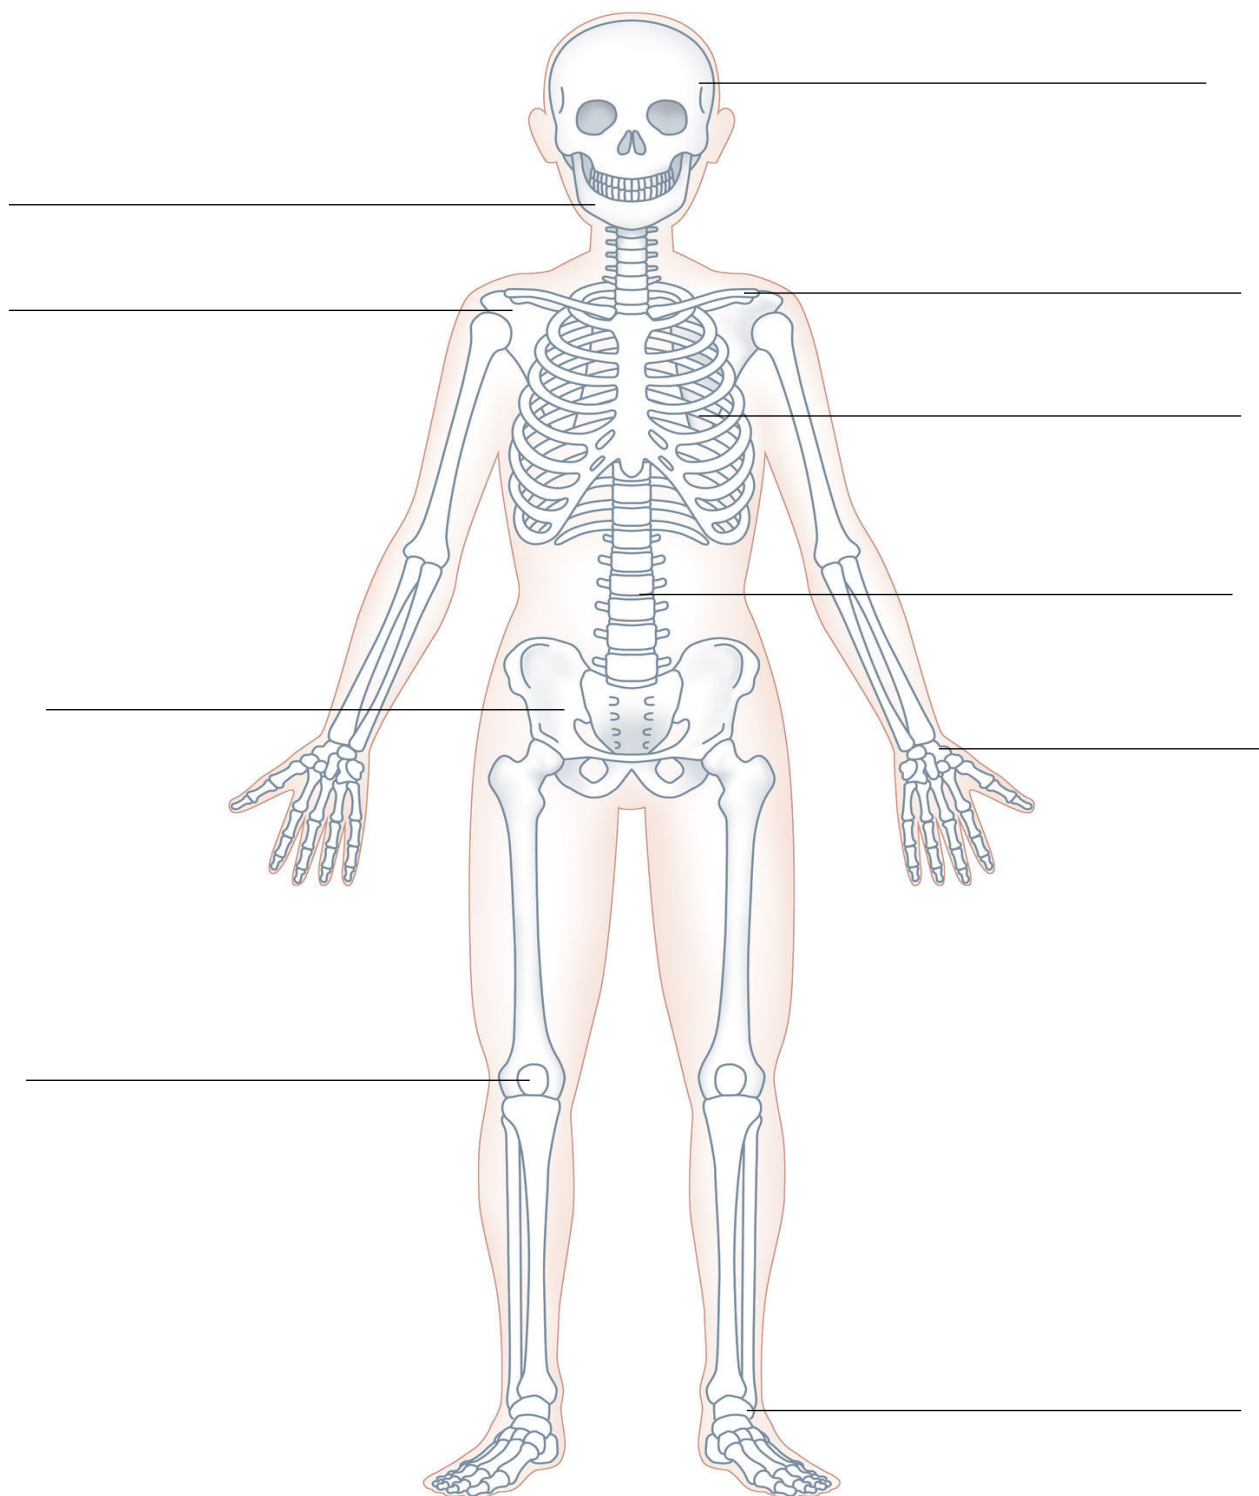

Encourage students to familiarize themselves with the bone identification labels on the Skeleton Graphic below. Instruct them to use the Skeleton Graphic as a guide to fill in the blanks on the following page. Depending on student's age or skill level, they may use the Skeleton Graphic as a direct reference or may attempt to fill in the blanks independently.

Skeleton Labeling

Write the name of each bone in the blank spaces designated by the lines below.

Check your work by referencing the Skeleton Graphic found on page 13.
